Town council asked to save youth club at risk of closure

CALL FOR PAID YOUTH WORKER AFTER VOLUNTEER STEPS DOWN

Anders Larsson

Chief reporter | anders@viewnews.co.uk

AXMINSTER Town Council might step in and hire a youth worker to save the town's new youth club.

Councillors expressed an interest in helping to save the club, and will set up a working party to take a closer look.

Axminster New Youth Club (ANYC) was set up by volunteers three years ago when the county council-run club closed.

ANYC is doing well in terms of numbers, attracting an average of about 35 youngsters a week.

But it is difficult to recruit volunteers to help run the club, and the chairman and club stalwart Shiobhan Pickering has given notice she will step down at the AGM in October.

Nobody has signalled a will to take over, which is why it has been proposed that Axminster Town Council employs or contracts a youth worker.

Town councillor Lara Rowe, who is involved with the new youth club, made the suggestion at the council's July meeting and reported that chairman Shiobhan Pickering has given notice that she wishes to stand down at the next AGM in October.

She praised Ms Pickering, saying she has been the chairman for three years and played a pivotal and active part in the club's success.

Councillor Rowe told fellow councillors: "The youth club is getting stronger and stronger, at the moment in an average week we get about 35 youngsters turning up."

"I think it would be a great shame to Axminster if, due to lack of volunteers or lack of leadership, it was just to fold again."

"Would there be money to employ a youth worker one night a week, a maximum of four hours a week, like other towns in this area do?" "I am just very concerned that no-one else is willing to stand at this time."

Mayor Jeremy Walden, who is also involved with the youth club and is its safeguarding lead, said: "We are looking at about £1,600 a year?"

Councillor Rowe replied: "Yes."

Councillor Walden said: "What I would venture to suggest is that this would not be an employment, this would be contracted out to somebody who is a self-employed youth worker with all the necessary qualifications, and that we look at it further to see if it is feasible and viable. May I suggest that before we commit any money?"

Councillor Rowe said: "Yes, I just wanted to make the council aware."

Councillor Walden added: "I go up to the youth club most weeks, if only just to pop my head in the door; it is increasing in popularity."

"In order to get it ready and in order to plan the activities, it is not just opening it up, it does need a degree of commitment."

"In fairness to Shiobhan Pickering, she has done it for three years on top of her normal job, and she does it as a volunteer."

"We need someone perhaps, in order to take it a step further, with professional youth training."

Councillor Sue Spiller said: "I think we need to look a little bit deeper into this."

"Can we have a working party to look at the costings, the use of the youth club, what the young people feel about the use of it, what the prospects are of getting a volunteer and what other towns and villages around here do."

"Then, as a town council, we can discuss those findings."

It was agreed to form a working party and councillors were encouraged to pay a visit to the youth club.

Councillor Walden concluded: "We'd love to see you, you'd be quite amazed at what goes on there."

Parishes Together fund awards cash

A TOTAL of 35 worthy community schemes have had Parishes Together Fund applications approved by the decision making panel of East Devon District councillors between April 2016 and March 2017; the same funding is available again now.

Designed to provide financial solutions to local issues, the Parishes Together Fund is a joint East Devon District Council and Devon County Council initiative in which the sum of £1.10 per elector in each parish is put into a central pot, which parish and town councils can then apply to for funding towards community projects.

All projects, apart from ditches and drainage projects that will help prevent flooding, must benefit a wider area than that of just one town or parish council.

Some of the successful projects from April 2016 to March 2017 were:

- £7,125 towards a tourism project from Seaton Town Council and Axmouth and Branscombe Parish Councils to improve tourism, including creating a tourism App for the area that residents and visitors can download onto smartphones and tablets and find out what's going on in the area;
- £4,970 towards a reputable theatre company putting on a play to educate all Year 9 students in East Devon about the dangers of child sexual exploitation – Cranbrook, Broadclyst, Clyst Honiton, Poltimore, Ottery St

Mary town and parish councils bid for this funding;

- £3,290 to pay for educational signs along country walks in the parishes of Otterton and Woodbury. The signs will be low level, in keeping with the environment and will give details on local animal and plant life you may well see on the walks;
- Broadclyst, Clyst Honiton, Cranbrook, Poltimore parish councils were granted £2,893 to help pay for the creation of a lit community heli-pad in Broadclyst, so the Devon Air Ambulance can land there at night;
- All Saints, Kilmington and Chardstock parish councils and Axminster Town Council will receive £7,993 to provide defibrillators that the general public can access and use in the town and parishes to cover spots where there are none;
- £37,090 will be received by Exmouth and Honiton town councils towards improving tourism in the area – this will be used to help fund town guides, websites and some staffing resource;
- Sidmouth Town Council, with support from Newton Poppleford Parish Council, were granted £2,700 to pay for a mental health project to benefit local young people and £1,847 to help set up Sid Valley Youth Netball Club, to encourage the importance of a healthy lifestyle – they will also receive £8,532 towards creating wildflower beds in grass verges around the town;
- Aylesbeare, Talaton, Plymtree, Cranbrook, Monkton and Upton successfully bid for funding to help them pay for new community events noticeboards in their parishes.
- £19,022 in total has been granted to 20 projects that will work on ditches and drainage in relation to the prevention of flooding.

There's £124,300 available again now! Applications have to come from town and parish councils, but voluntary and community groups, schools and other organisations can put their ideas forward to their town or parish council.

Councillor Phil Twiss, Deputy Leader of East Devon District Council and chairman of the fund, said: "I am very proud to be involved in the grass roots Parishes Together Fund, as it pumps funding directly in to local projects promoted by parish councils.

"I would encourage all town and parish councils to apply for funding. The quality of some of the projects this year has been outstanding."

Hospital protesters to return to County Hall this afternoon

PROTESTERS from Seaton, Honiton and elsewhere in Devon will converge on County Hall again today before a special meeting of the county council's Health Scrutiny Committee decides whether to refer the closure of beds in the towns' hospitals to the Health Secretary.

NEW Devon Clinical Commissioning Group proposes to replace the beds with a new system of care at home.

Seaton and Colyton county councillor Martin Shaw said: "We shall be pointing out that the new system, which they have been developing only since March, has not been tested in winter, let alone a flu epidemic.

"It is uncertain that they will be able to staff it effectively over time given the complex travelling arrangements that it requires for medical as well as care staff.

"The small number of beds (halved to 71) which they propose to retain across the 3 remaining community hospitals ignores the facts that East Devon has far more over-85s (the key users of community beds) than other areas of Devon and that these numbers are projected to treble in the next two decades.

"The remaining beds will not be distributed in an 'even geographic spread' as the CCG claim but, concentrated in Tiverton, Exmouth and Sidmouth, give no provision at all in the Axe Valley which is the area of East Devon furthest from the RD&E.

"The closure of beds is driven by the CCG's aim of reducing the amount of rent which it has to pay to NHS Property Services for community hospital space, and is probably a prelude to the gradual elimination of community hospitals over the next few years."

Six speakers from the affected communities will address the Committee in the Public Participation session.

Countryside survey

THE East Devon District Council Countryside service is, with the support of 25 volunteers, co-ordinating a series of surveys to gather valuable data on bird, reptile, butterfly, dragonfly, wildlife, bio-diversity and water quality at nature reserves across East Devon.

The surveys which are taking place at a number of nature reserves managed by the Countryside team, include the Maer in Exmouth, Holyford Woods near Colyton, Seaton Wetlands and Trinity Hill near Axminster.

The volunteers have been offered training in their field and in data recording, so that they can visit the sites to gather accurate and valuable data on the state of the habitats managed by the Countryside team.

To find out more visit wildestdevon.co.uk. The team can be contacted via email at countryside@eastdevon.gov.uk or by calling 01395 517557.

Warning over giant hogweed after teenager suffers burns and blisters

A TEENAGER was left in agony with horrific burns and blisters after he brushed past a dangerous giant hogweed plant at a beauty hotspot in South Somerset.

Amber Gault, 39, rushed her son Max, aged 17, to hospital after he suffered agonising 'huge yellow filled liquid blisters' on his right leg, arm and forehead.

A nurse lanced the worst of the yellow boils but Max was still in pain over the weekend to such an extent that he was unable to work.

The youngster came into contact with a plant while on a mountain bike ride with a friend at Ham Hill Country Park, near Stoke-sub-Hamdon.

His mother, from Crewkerne, Somerset, has spoken out to warn other parents about the Giant Hogweed after reading that there had been confirmed reports in the area.

She said: "Max went mountain biking up at Ham Hill with a couple of friends.

"He complained his leg seemed a bit sore when he got home and then by Friday I had to take him to the minor injuries unit in Crewkerne as his right leg, arm and forehead had come out into huge yellow liquid filled blisters.

"Max knows what plants to look out for and wasn't aware that he had touched any but he must have accidentally brushed past some while cycling.

"I think last year there were signs up at Ham Hill warning about these plants but I really think people need to be made more aware about how much skin damage these plants can cause.

"Hopefully he's now on the mend and will be back to work soon."

Amber suspects that if Max wasn't injured by giant hogweed it might have been another poisonous plant, like wild or cow parsnip.

Ham Hill Country Park warned the public in August last year about the dangers of the wild parsnip plant.

The countryside manager for South Somerset District Council was able to confirm there is no giant hogweed at Ham Hill but there is hogweed.

A spokesman for the council added: "Both these plants share the Genus Heracleum; the difference is that only hogweed is native to the UK and a feature of native habitats.

"Giant hogweed is classified as an invasive non-native species and is notifiable.

"Hogweed is common across all our South Somerset countryside sites and along verges, field margins and footpaths.

"Its sap can cause the same phytophotodermatitis, but nothing like to the same extent as giant hogweed.

"At Ham Hill we have warning signs about plants like hogweed for visitors, and we post information on social media.

"Hogweed is a native plant and part of the species mix in the habitats on the hill.

"The Ranger team trim back path edges and maintain clear routes for the public to use throughout the summer months."

Wild parsnip is still in place at Ham Hill but the council is planning to tackle it.

A spokesman for the council said: "We can confirm that we do still have significant wild parsnip on Ham Hill despite the efforts of the rangers and volunteers last year.

Giant hogweed

"Wild parsnip thrives in the free draining slightly limey soils on Ham Hill.

"The problem with wild parsnip is that it can grow successfully in the shorter grasslands on the lumps and bumps which is the same area that children like to play in.

"It is these areas that we pulled the parsnip up from last year.

"We will be dealing with it again in the coming days and weeks.

"Cutting it would only cause it to grow back more vigorously, spraying it with a herbicide is not ideal in such a high footfall area on a nature conservation sit.

"Therefore we will again pull the plant from high footfall areas."

Devon police launch new drone unit

DEVON and Cornwall Police have joined with their Dorset counterparts to become the first police forces in the UK to launch a fully operational Drone Unit.

The latest in drone technology has been trialled in the respective forces since November 2015 and such has been their benefit, an operational drone unit has been created.

Chief Superintendent Jim Nye, Commander for the Alliance Operations Department, said: "This is a historic step for the Alliance and policing in the UK; drone capability is a cutting edge way to support operational policing across Devon, Cornwall and Dorset.

"This technology offers a highly cost effective approach in supporting our officers on the ground in operational policing.

"Drones will aid officers as part of missing person searches, crime scene photography, responding to major road traffic collisions, coastal and woodland searches and to combat wildlife crime.

"Drones can even help police track and monitor suspects during a firearm or terrorist incident, as it will allow officers to gain vital information, quickly, safely, and allow us to respond effectively at the scene.

"Being the first police forces in the country to have a stand-alone, fully operational drone unit is a great source of pride for the Alliance, and proves that we continue to work hard to find innovative ways to adapt to the ever-changing policing landscape."

Drone Team Manager, Andy Hamilton, said: "It is fantastic to see both forces working together to lead the way in utilising new, cutting-edge technology.

"Having previously been a police officer for 30 years, I have seen how technology has changed and can help us become more efficient in what we are trying to achieve.

"In the past, any aerial photos or videos have been captured by the National Police Air Service (NPAS) helicopter, which is not always the best use of resources.

"Instead of always sending a helicopter on an hour's flight to take a few photos of a crime scene, we can now use a drone to carry out the same task.

"Whilst drones will enhance our roads policing function, I also see this technology being able to complement NPAS by allowing helicopters to be available for more serious incidents across the South West."

The Drone Unit is currently using DJI Inspire drone equipped with a zoom camera and thermal imaging to allow for operational use 24 hours a day. The camera is HD/4K quality and can capture both video and still images.

Slimmers donate old clothes to charity

GENEROUS residents in Honiton, Axminster, Seaton and Ottery St Mary have been donating the clothes they've slimmed out of to The Big Slimming World Clothes Throw in support of Cancer Research UK.

The Slimming World groups have collected 181 bags of the clothes, shoes and accessories from members who slimmed out of their old wardrobes and feel confident they'll never need their 'before' clothes again. With each bag worth around £25 to the charity, slimmers have raised £4,525 for Cancer Research.

The Big Slimming World Clothes Throw aims to increase awareness of how keeping a healthy weight helps reduce the risk of developing some types of cancer.

The event has been supported by the singer and TV presenter, Peter Andre, who is a joint ambassador for the campaign and founder of his own Cancer Research UK fund after losing his brother to cancer.

Consultants Sharon, Sam, Helen and Dawn, who runs weekly groups in Honiton, Seaton, Axminster and Ottery, said they were proud of their members' fundraising efforts, saying: "The members never fail to amaze us with their weight loss results week after week and it has been great to see so many bags of clothes donated through The Big Slimming World Clothes Throw.

Sharon said: "This year's Clothes Throw has been a fantastic success, and I can't believe just how many bags my members, their friends and families have managed to collect.

"Our groups are always buzzing and when we collected the bags up and saw what a phenomenal amount there were altogether, and we realised what a difference we could make, the atmosphere was just electric.

"Lots of people don't know that maintaining a healthy weight helps reduce the risk of developing some types of cancer.

"All of the wardrobes cleared and every donation made by our members, their friends and families will make a huge difference to Cancer Research UK and we're so grateful for everyone's support.

"The Clothes Throw has been a great chance for the members who have done so well to celebrate their amazing weight losses by saying goodbye to their 'before' clothes!"

Boost for county's diabetes patients

DIABETIC patients across Devon will benefit from £1.16million to help improve their long-term health and prevent them developing complications that lead to amputation.

The funding will support increased resources for Diabetic Foot Specialist Teams, with diabetes consultants, nurses and other health professionals working together to intervene if a patient is developing diabetic foot disease.

In addition, the money will support GPs and diabetes nurses in managing patients' diabetes in line with diabetes targets recommended by the National Institute for Health and Care Excellence (NICE). This will include managing patients' cholesterol levels and blood pressure, which can lead to heart problems, diabetic eye disease and kidney disease if not controlled.

The funding is the first of a two-phase grant totalling £2.4million, with the remaining funds being released in 2018 when targets are met.

NHS Northern, Eastern and Western Devon and South Devon and Torbay Clinical Commissioning Groups (CCGs) have been awarded the money from NHS England through its Diabetes Treatment and Care Transformation Fund.

Nicola Gurr, leading the project for both CCGs, said: "This funding will help us to tackle this debilitating illness head on, and to support patients to manage their diabetes in a way that enables them to be as informed, healthy and active as possible.

"Diabetic foot disease can often deteriorate rapidly, which is why our approach will be to create new footcare teams and enhance those already in existence.

"This should significantly improve outcomes for our patients by providing early identification and access to immediate treatment."

Social media scams

PEOPLE of all ages are falling foul of scams which target them through their social media accounts, the Devon, Somerset and Torbay Trading Standards Service has warned.

To raise awareness, a number of information events are being held in towns around the area.

The Devon, Somerset and Torbay Trading Standards Service is combating the online menace with social media posts of their own, giving tips on what to look out for.

Consumers are being urged to read the posts and attend one of the information events as both will give people the knowledge and skills to recognise and report scams, and what to do if scammed.

Trading Standards officers will be available at the events to answer questions and will promote the Buy With Confidence scheme, which helps consumers identify reputable traders in their communities.

July is National Scams Awareness Month and Devon, Somerset and Torbay Trading Standards Service has joined forces with Citizens Advice and the Chartered Trading Standards Institute to highlight the dangers of scams to people of all ages.

Councillor Stuart Barker, Devon County Council's Cabinet Member with responsibility for Trading Standards, said: "Increasingly we are seeing groups of people who believe that they would never fall for a scam, feeling they can easily spot a scam, or know how to act.

"However, scammers are becoming highly sophisticated; they know how to manipulate people and are tailoring their scams to specific groups."

Information events are being held today (Tuesday, July 25th) at Colyton Community Café, St Andrew's Sunday School, The Vicarage, Vicarage Street, from 10am to 12pm, and at Tesco, Axminster, on Thursday, August 3rd from 10am to 12pm.

Project art exhibition is big success

THE Project's first art exhibition to raise awareness about mental illness earned positive feedback and acclaim.

The event was held from Friday, June 30th to Sunday, July 2nd at Pippins Community Centre in Axminster.

"This is my Mental Illness" featured more than 40 artworks, including paintings, sculptures and interactive installations.

It attracted more than 100 visitors, some travelling considerable distances to attend.

Despite being a free event, the exhibition also raised £200 for The Project thanks to visitors' generosity and the sale of exhibits.

Exhibition organiser and The Project volunteer Jess Foster said: "I was so impressed by all the artwork that people submitted, and by how many pieces ended up being displayed.

"I'm really grateful to everyone who came along, and for the support shown for future exhibitions.

"Hearing people's feedback and appreciation was overwhelming.

"Art has been so important to me through my mental illness and, clearly, I'm not alone in that. That's a good feeling."

The exhibition gave people the opportunity to express their feelings about mental health in a non-verbal format, providing insight into a wide range of perspectives.

The inclusive nature of the event encouraged everyone to participate without fear of judgment, resulting in a rich variety of artworks from people of all ages.

Visitors' comments included "Moving. Thought-provoking. Hopeful. A superb exhibition."

Another remarked that the artworks "helps an outsider understand a small part of how mental health affects people in our community".

The Project's founder, Debbie Humberstone, said: "We had no idea if the exhibition would be a success, but everyone who attended over the three days was so positive about it.

"In fact, many expressed a hope that we would put on further exhibitions – or even go on tour with it.

The artwork people submitted was both beautiful and moving, and I thought the exhibition looked fantastic, so it's lovely to have received the feedback we have.

"I would like to thank Jess, who came up with the idea and made the whole event happen.

"I know she was worried that no one would come but, in fact, quite the opposite has been true.

"It seems that expressing mental illness through art is something that many can relate to."

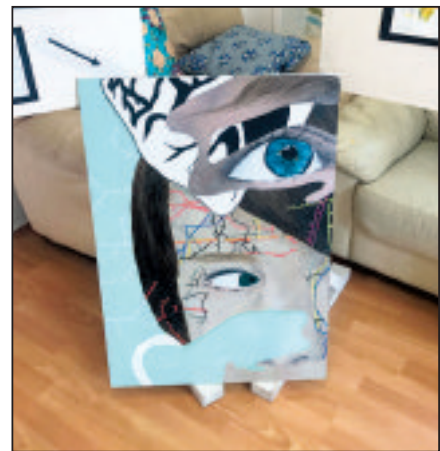

The Project would like to thank everyone involved in making the exhibition a success, especially those who contributed artwork and to all the visitors who came along.

Thanks also go to David Everett and Chardstock Historical Records Group for the loan of the display panels, and to all the groups at Pippins Community Centre who changed plans and arrangements to accommodate the exhibition.

The Project, which is part of Action East Devon, is a local mental health group which runs weekly peer support groups in Axminster and Chard for young people aged 13-24, and monthly support groups for parents and carers.

It also provides mental health training courses and awareness workshops to schools, businesses and the general public.

New addiction support group at Pippins

A SEATON man, who was given six months to live if he didn't stop drinking, has set up a support group in Axminster for families affected by addiction.

John McMahon, assisted by his partner Lou Lewis, has started a group at Pippins where families affected by addiction, be it drink or drugs, can receive help and support.

The group is not restricted to people in Axminster, with Mr McMahon saying: "If you can get there, you can come there."

He was a senior lecturer and researcher at the Centre for Alcohol and Drug Studies for many years but, prior to that, he was given six months to live because of his addiction to alcohol and drugs.

This was in 1984, and he has been clean and sober since, one of his books describing part of that journey as "going from a drunk to a doctor in a decade".

Lou is a counsellor with her own private practice but her previous husband was an alcoholic for 29 years, so she too has first-hand experience of the issues.

They decided to provide help for families affected by addiction, so created Bottled Up. The website has members from all over the globe and has helped people to not just cope with their situation, but to change their lives and, in many cases, change their addicted family member.

In a recent move, Mr McMahon started a support group at Pippins in Axminster for families affected by addiction.

This is a venture in collaboration with the Rise Hub that provides treatment for substance users.

Mr McMahon said: "According to Devon Public Health statistics, Devon is home to around 30,000 substance misusers (3,000 drugs and 27,000 alcohol).

"Received wisdom suggests that each misuser affects three other people, mostly family members. The statistics show that psychiatric problems, such as depression and anxiety, are 300 per cent higher among the partners' of addicts than in the general population. Divorce rates are higher and there is a higher percentage of single-parent families.

"The children have higher rates of truancy, delinquency and addiction – and the use of medical facilities for the whole family tends to be around twice those of families where addiction is not a problem.

"Yet despite so many being affected by the issue, there are few services available for this group.

"What little money is allocated for addiction treatment tends to be focussed on treating addicts, with only around one per cent of the budget being allocated to helping families."

He is very open about his own background and introduced himself in a book called Bottled Up, by writing: "In 1994 I graduated with a PhD in psychology from the University of Glasgow. My wife and mother looked on proudly as I paraded in my rented gown.

■ HELPING HAND: Lou Lewis and John McMahon jointly wrote Bottled Up

"The sun shone and everyone had strawberries and champagne on the lawn; everyone but me, that is.

"Few people realised that behind this very happy scene was a story that was best summed up by the wife of my supervisor when she said that I had gone from 'a drunk to a doctor in a decade'."

He was more secretive about his past back then, but not because of the stigma.

He explained: "I spent the next 15 years on research, teaching at master's and doctoral level. I wrote papers for prestigious journals and regularly presented work at conferences around the world.

"However, the one thing I kept secret was my own past and my experience with alcohol and drugs. For about 15 years I had used alcohol and drugs heavily.

"In fact, I was treated on numerous occasions by my doctor for alcohol problems, and he consistently suggested that I should attend AA. I disagreed. Finally, I was hospitalised in a dreadful state.

"The doctor treating me diagnosed brain damage and liver damage, and gave me six months to live if I did not stop drinking.

"From that day onwards I attended hospital, AA, group therapy and anything else that was available and I have been clean and sober since.

"All through my academic years I hid the fact that I had a drink problem. I did not hide it because of the shame or stigma. No: I hid it because I wanted to be taken seriously as a researcher and an academic.

"Ironically, now I find that this personal experience may be one of the most powerful qualifications I have to help people."

The support group meets at Pippins, Lyme Road, Axminster, on Tuesdays from 10.30am-12.15pm.

More information can be obtained by e-mailing Mr McMahon at john@247helpyourself.com or phoning him on 07979 715452.

■ PRECISION: Participants were focused throughout

Twinnings play boules

ALMOST 30 people attended Axminster Twinning Association's boules evening at The Lamb Inn, including a French couple tasked with explaining the rules.

The event was held on July 13th and the 28 participants were divided into four teams, and twinning association member Jan Walmsley said: "There was some confusion at the beginning about rules.

"A French couple, who were staying with some members, stepped in to explain the process and the game began.

"Everybody enjoyed a very pleasant evening with much laughter and conversation, sometimes in French.

"The next social event will be bird watching, via Seaton Tramway, on Seaton Wetlands on September 2nd, followed by a meal.

"The same month it is hoped that the monthly French conversation evenings will resume."

If anybody is interested in learning more about the association, phone Caroline Hill-yard on 01297 34497.

College students stage classic musical

HONITON Community College came alive with the Sound of Music last week as students performed this year's summer production.

Audiences enjoyed the well-loved songs, including 'Do-Re-Mi', 'My Favourite Things', 'So Long, Farewell' and, of course, the title song 'The Sound of Music' – all of which were performed with lively energy by the cast, alongside a superb musical accompaniment from the orchestra.

Year 11 student Kayley Docherty wowed audiences with her portrayal of the postulant Maria, and Rhys Phillips gave a tremendous debut performance in the role of Captain Von Trapp.

Each performance saw standing ovations from the crowds in appreciation for all the talent and hard work that went in to staging yet another brilliant production.

This was the final production for musical director and head of music Chris Cater who will be leaving the college at the end of term.

Marc Culwick, director and head of drama, said "Chris will be greatly missed.

"He bravely took on 'Les Miserables' as his first musical for HCC last year and quickly won the respect of the children and staff for his tenacity, drive, professionalism and for the infectious enthusiasm he brings to every rehearsal."

Denize Creed, props, set and creative arts technician at the college, said: "It's been a real joy to work with Chris Carter on The Sound of Music and other previous college productions.

"Over the years I have watched Chris bring out the best in all our wonderful performers past and present.

"He has helped and encouraged so many talented youngsters with his generous spirit and buzzing enthusiasm, making each production great fun to work on. We will miss him enormously".

Triathlon a big success

PURE Endurance Triathletes hosted their first ever event in Honiton recently, declaring it a huge success after it sold out with 250 entrants.

Organiser Andrew Dare said: "Everyone on the team was a little bit nervous leading up to the event but with the support of DB Max they helped reassure the team on any issues such as hat colours or timing issues."

"The team arrived early at 4am on the Sunday still in darkness, not having had much sleep due to nerves!

"Not sure who was more nervous – the competitors or the organisers but the weather ending up being very hot and perfect conditions for all competitors.

"Out of the 250 competitors we had more than 60 competitors completing a triathlon for the first time.

"There was a mixture of all abilities including a remarkable chap called Paul Jelley with only one arm completed the event in a brilliant time of 1hr 35minutes.

"The overall winner and first male was Donald Brooks in a time of 53:26 minutes and first female was Flo Swan 1hr 51mins.

"The support of more than 50 marshals was exceptional and their cheering all day was amazing.

"We could have not done it without their support along with the help of local organisations such as LED Leisure, Ganesha Wholefoods, Total Renewable Solutions, Axminster Tools & Machinery, Devonvale Bakery, RBS Scaffolding, Cliff Bars, Protein Water Co, Red Home and Signs South West."

Following the event Pure Endurance Triathletes presented a cheque for £500 to Honiton Rugby Club to say thank you for the use of there facilities on the day.

■ Paul Jelley competed in the triathlon despite having one arm and came home in a fantastic time of one hour and 35 minutes

Honiton company marks 25th anniversary with air ambulance fundraising pledge

HONITON-based Nu-Heat, is marking its silver anniversary by supporting a life-saving local charity also marking 25 years – Devon Air Ambulance Trust.

Growing from a very small team of just five employees in 1992, Nu-Heat now employs more than 100 people and has designed and supplied tailored, award-winning underfloor heating and renewables solutions for more than 70,000 homes nationwide.

Nu-Heat plans to mark its silver anniversary with a series of fundraising activities in support of Devon Air Ambulance, culminating in a charity garden party and raffle for the company's people and their families at Escot House near Ottery St Mary in September.

The company has an impressive track record of raising money for charity, donating more than £24,000 to good causes over the last decade alone.

Nu-Heat managing director David Roberts explained: "We operate nationwide but, as a Devon employer, we wanted to mark this special year for Nu-Heat by supporting a local cause that is close to the hearts of our people and their families.

"We work with a different charity every year and it seemed appropriate for us to show our support for Devon Air Ambulance Trust in a year that marks an important milestone for us both.

"Devon Air Ambulance provides life-saving medical assistance for hundreds of residents and visitors to the region each year, often in locations that would be inaccessible by road.

"We hope that the legacy of our 25th year will be to ensure that the charity's helicopters and paramedics can reach even more people in their hour of greatest need."

DAA Fundraising Director Caroline Creer added: "We are extremely grateful to Nu-Heat for choosing to support Devon Air Ambulance in our 25th year of service with their own 25th celebration.

"Like Nu-Heat, our service has come a long way from our humble beginnings and it is with thanks to the people, communities and businesses of Devon who have supported us through the years that we have reached this fantastic milestone.

"We look forward to building a winning relationship with Nu-Heat and supporting them with their fundraising."

If you would like to donate a prize for the company's charity raffle in aid of Devon Air Ambulance, email info@nu-heat.co.uk or call 01404 549770.

Chiefs coach visits Offwell school

OFFWELL Primary School students recently had a very special guest at their celebration assembly.

Each week the whole school comes together to share news about the classes and recognise the achievements of individuals who have excelled over the week.

Recently this gathering was made even more exciting by the attendance of Andy Dudley, who helps coach Aviva Premiership rugby champions Exeter Chiefs, and David Todd, the president of Honiton Rugby Club.

They were there to recognise the effort made by three Year Four children who had taken part in a Rotary Club sponsored competition, Youth Speaks.

The three had chosen to talk about rugby and whether it is safe for children to play – this was very close to their hearts as they all play for Honiton Under 9s.

The team did well in Youth Speaks coming joint first but their real prize was each receiving a signed rugby ball and the promise of a signed photo of Jack Nowell once he comes back from playing with the British Lions in New Zealand.

Headteacher Mrs Billington said: "I will never forget the look on their faces when they received their rewards."

Celebrations as Number One refurbishment is completed

■ REFURB: Pastor Jon Sibley and Mayor Jack Rowland joined Age UK Devon volunteers at the coffee morning

THE completion of a £35,000 refurbishment was celebrated during an open morning at Number One, Harepath Road.

The facility is run by Cross-road Christian Fellowship, assisted by Age UK Devon.

Age UK Devon volunteer and trustee Anne Howe said: "Major refurbishments have been undertaken, which have caused some disruption, requiring the building to be closed and meetings to be cancelled on several occasions.

"New windows, a new carpet, a new kitchen floor, new doors and a new toilet suitable for disabled users – the place looks great and Age UK Devon is pleased to provide the refreshments this morning to celebrate and to thank those responsible for all these improvements.

"And, more importantly, to let everyone know that it is business as usual again at the new look Number One.

"All the regular groups are meeting as normal with no further disruptions."

The open morning was held on July 19th.

Age UK Devon runs three activities every week in Seaton: Body Moves (Tuesday mornings), Call in for a Cuppa (Wednesday mornings) and Knit and Natter (Thursday afternoon).

For more details, telephone 0333 241 2340.

Police stop drivers to advise them on anti-social driving

TWENTY drivers were stopped and given advice when police responded to complaints of anti-social driving in Seaton.

Areas included Royal Observer Way, The Esplanade and routes to Beer and Colyton.

Police staged an operation for four evenings at the end of June and early July, and PC Richard Jenkins said: "A total of 20 vehicles were dealt with. "All drivers were advised regarding their manner and future manner of driving.

"Four drivers were warned regarding speed offences, six drivers were advised regarding construction and use (e.g. noisy exhaust, faulty headlights, etc).

"Also, following searches of vehicles, several items were seized including drug paraphernalia."

The Seaton Neighbourhood Police Team intend to repeat this operation when necessary.

Anti-social driving is described as 'driving in a careless or inconsiderate manner and thus causing distress or annoyance to others (this may include speeding but not necessarily)'.
PC Jenkins said that police can use powers under Police Reform Act, and added: "This legislation is aimed at any form of anti-social driving and requires the driver to drive appropriately for the following 12 months after an initial warning or his vehicle will be seized by police.

"This is a very impactful piece of legislation, which all anti-social drivers should be aware of.

"To recover their vehicle, drivers will have to pay a minimum of two days' storage plus a further daily rate."

Grant boost for cricket club

SEATON Cricket and Lawn Tennis Club has received a £11,144.67 grant from Viridor Credits, which has helped repair a leaking pavilion roof, re-surface an access road into the club car park and digitise the scoreboard.

The new scoreboard was used for the first time when Free Foresters CC hired the Seaton ground to play Marylebone CC during the week commencing July 10th.

Chairman Chris Gamwell said: "We are extremely grateful to Viridor Credits for their generous grant, without which we could not have carried out these improvements.

"We are grateful also to Lyme Bay Law of Seaton for funding 10 per cent of the total cost of the project in a partnership with Viridor Credits."

Representing Viridor Credits, Gareth Williams said: "We are proud to assist local sporting community clubs in improving their facilities which is essential if young people are to be encouraged to play sport and develop their personalities."

Viridor Credits funds community, heritage and biodiversity projects through the Landfill Communities Fund and Scottish Landfill Communities Fund.

Lions stage seafront market for good causes

SEATON & District Lions Club turned The Esplanade into a street market in aid of local and international good causes earlier this month.

Traders and customers turned up in numbers on Sunday, July 16th and the amount raised will be announced in due course.

Garden society celebrates 25 years

COLYTON & District Garden Society celebrated 25th anniversary last week with a special lunch at Blackberry Honey Farm in Southleigh.

Many of the society's 72 members and guests gathered in the tea room for lunch and to cut an anniversary cake.

President Malcolm Harmer welcomed the guests and shared stories from the group's 25-year history, saying he could not think of a more meaningful hobby than gardening.

He thanked the current chairman, Sue Price, and committee for their effort and dedication, adding: "Long may the current standard be maintained but hopefully with some new members on the committee. It's a duty not a chore that needs to be shared."

Colyton & District Garden Society meets on the third Wednesday of the month with the next to be held at 7.30pm on August 16th in Colyford Memorial Hall. The group enjoys talks and garden visits and is supported by honorary member, horticulturist and broadcaster Anne Swithinbank.

Colyton explores its history in lace trade

COLYTON'S historic connection to the wool, cloth and lace trades was recently celebrated at St Andrew's Church.

Colyton Heritage Centre hosted Cloth and Lace Day on Wednesday, July 12th with an exhibition, activities and demonstrations in the church.

Events included talks on 'Lacemaking in Colyton' by Carol McFadzean, president of Devon Lace Teachers, and on Honiton lace by international lace expert Pat Perryman.

A lace walk explored the cottages where Victorian lace makers lived and demonstrations of lace-making, spinning, weaving and felting were held in the church with the opportunity for visitors to try out the crafts themselves.

Shute pupils play in their new kit

SHUTE Primary School's football team has turned out in a new kit, sponsored by Coastline Creative.

The new kit came to good use when the school took on Kilmington Primary School over two legs.

Andy Widger, who coaches at both schools, said: "Kilmington hosted the first match, which ended in a 6-4 win for the home team."

Mr Widger said there were "fantastic performances" from Shute's Scarlett Knivett and Kilmington's Durwin Smith.

Kilmington also won the second match, 5-3, and Mr Widger said: "Both games were a fantastic advert for school football, played with a positive attitude and great spirit and neat football. Thanks to the parents and guardians for their support and encouragement – and a special mention to Wes Dowell from Coastline

■ DRESSED FOR SUCCESS: Shute players in their new kit

Creative for kindly sponsoring a new team kit for Shute Primary.

"They proudly wore it in both games. With years of no kit, this makes such a difference to the children in the way they feel and play."

He also praised Miller's Farm Shop for donating half-time oranges.

Flower show this Saturday

THE annual Kilmington Flower Show and Village Fayre is set for Saturday, July 29th.

One of the last traditional flower and produce shows there are more than 130 classes for flowers, vegetables, preserves, cookery, crafts and a special section for children; something for everyone and entries are free.

All will be on display in the floral and craft marquee, which opens at 1pm.

The afternoon fayre, which moved to its new showground in Whitford Road last year provides some real family entertainment.

Arena shows start at 2pm and there will be plenty more to keep the children happy through the afternoon.

The fun dog games are another show favourite and a new one added for this year is a 'Dog Fancy Dress'.

The dads are not forgotten with some 'Toys for the Boys' – a display of vintage tractors, classic cars and motorbikes.

With a BBQ, cream teas and ice creams you won't go hungry either and you can relax with a drink from the bar and listen to live music from In 2 The Blue.

Entries for the flower show are free and can be made at Kilmington Village Hall on Wednesday 26th from 11am-12.30pm and on Thursday 27th from 11am-12.30pm and from 4pm-6.30pm.

■ CHILDREN competed in a range of activities from bean bag races to potato and spoon races during Kilmington Pre-School's sports day. Proud parents and family members came out to watch and cheer all the children on. After the fun-filled morning, the children enjoyed an ice cream and were presented with a certificate and medal.

the WI INSPIRING WOMEN

■ MUSBURY AND WHITFORD: The July meeting took place on the evening of Tuesday, July 11th at Whitford Village Hall.

Our booked speaker was unable to attend and we are grateful to Mr Ray Helm, a retired senior police officer who works for an aid agency when disasters occur worldwide, for stepping in at the last minute.

He is a gifted speaker who blended the pathos with the amusing to ensure we had an informative, yet entertaining evening.

Monica and John were thanked for having hosted last month's Garden Meeting: not only was the garden a feast for the eyes but the weather was glorious as well.

The Axe Vale show provided us with a certificate and silverware as we were the winners of the WI Challenge Cup... our entry dropping only four points. Well done to all who made this possible!

Members were reminded of our outing to The House of Marbles on the July 25th. Contact Joy if you would like to come as there are still a few seats left.

Our next meeting on Tuesday, July 8th will be our annual members' coffee morning at 10am, followed by an ideas session for next year's programme and then a ploughman's lunch. See you there!

■ BEER: During the July meeting, Ken Basterfield gave Beer WI a very interesting talk about his life-long passion for bee-keeping and how they are trying to make the business at the Blackberry Honey Farm environmentally sustainable.

We discussed the agreed resolutions for 2017/18 – reducing the amount of microplastics from entering our seas and alleviating loneliness.

During the autumn, we will consider how we can follow through on the points for action locally.

Our activities this month have taken advantage of the fine weather, with a walk to Branscombe, taking advantage of the pub stops for refreshments, a coffee morning and a lunch party at which guests from other local WIs joined us.

We are continuing to run fund-raising craft stalls and tombola and in August are holding a cream tea and games afternoon, again to which guests are invited.

After our customary meeting break in August, we will resume on September 6th with a talk by Tony Burgess on 'Exeter in the Blitz and World War Two in Seaton'.

If you are new to the area or would like to find out more about being a WI member, we would welcome your company. You can attend two meetings without obligation.

Bowen Therapy

THE GREATEST ILLUSION THAT PHYSICAL & EMOTIONAL PAIN IS SEPARATE!

PAIN, ill health, and emotional problems are a clear sign that the body is in a state of imbalance. When the imbalance is corrected, the body can do the self-healing it needs to do leading to an improvement in physical and emotional symptoms.

On some level, we can all agree with that but what I see often is quite the opposite. What we tend to do is either go to the Doctor when we have physical pain or a therapist when we have emotional pain or do nothing at all.

This perception that they are separate entities within us is one of the biggest human misunderstandings of all.

As an Intuitive Bodyworker we will holistically look at your symptoms and by using the Biofeedback mechanism of Muscle testing we will be able to identify clearly and quickly what might be going on emotionally for this imbalance to have been created in the first place.

Once this has been identified it is then very easy to start correcting the imbalances to improve overall physical and emotional health through a combination of Bowen, Energy Healing, and Emotional /Trauma Release work.

Relationships Can Work – With Some Hard Work

RECENT statistics from Relate aren't encouraging.

- About 40% of co-habiting relationships, whether married or not, end in separation.

- About a fifth of couples report having a conflictive and distressing relationship.

- About a third of children under sixteen aren't living with both parents.

Why? - Emotionally intimate, live in relationships can be very challenging, because:

- Stuff happens – an affair, financial difficulties, etc.

- Stuff from childhood can get in the way – let downs in childhood can make it difficult to trust our partner or we could, unconsciously, choose a partner who's similar to a traumatising parent, etc.

- We don't learn at school how to do relationships or emotional literacy – there's no partner driving test.

When we realise that there's a serious problem with our relationship, we could:

1. Pretend everything's OK.
2. End the relationship.
3. Work at improving the relationship and our capacity to relate.

Life's short, so option 1 is usually a bad idea. Option 2 could be taken if the negatives of the relationship outweigh the total positives, including children, shared interests, etc.

As there's so much at stake, why not try option 3?

Samantha Davey Hypnotherapy

PEOPLE OFTEN ask me what can hypnotherapy help with. Broadly speaking hypnotherapy is helpful in four main areas:

- Emotional difficulties including anxiety, stress, depression and confidence building.

- Habitual problems and behavioural issues, e.g. nail biting, smoking, overeating.

- Physical conditions including IBS, persistent pain, headaches and hypertension.

- Performance enhancement - whether it's for sports, business, public speaking, your driving test, exams or anything else where you need to give your best.

We all experience light states of hypnosis every day – like when you're driving on autopilot, absorbed in a creative activity, or just daydreaming. In hypnotherapy we amplify that state and use it to help you to feel better, achieve your goals and live life to the full. All hypnotherapy sessions are tailored for your unique needs, helping you to create lasting, positive change through simple yet powerful imagery techniques and suggestions.

Just curious? I also offer a hypnotherapy "mind spa" – a relaxing and rejuvenating experience for both mind and body.

I offer a professional and supportive service in Seaton and Axminster. Free consultations and 10% off first therapy session until 31/8 Hypnotherapy can help with a wide range of issues, so please call even if your problem is not listed 07809 447720 or email info@hypno4freedom.co.uk

IS YOUR SKIN GIVING YOUR AGE AWAY?

AS THE skin ages, it loses its elasticity and, as a result, can develop fine lines and creases; cheeks start to look 'hollow' and lips lose their 'fullness' and definition. These can be helped by injection treatments, dermal fillers create definition and add volume to the skin and have an instant effect. Other injection treatments offered by the West of England Laser Centre include muscle relaxants, which injected in tiny purified doses, relax the small facial muscles beneath the skin thereby softening and diminishing the appearance of lines and wrinkles.

The West of England Laser Centre also hold regular laser treatment sessions at Nuffield Health Taunton Hospital. Laser treatments offer an extremely precise form of treatment for thread veins, unwanted tattoos, hair removal, moles and warts and skin pigmentation. DEFEATING DIABETES

EVEN small amounts of physical activity can offer health benefits that protect against diabetes, suggests new research.

The findings show that even a little exercise wards off insulin resistance, a precursor to type 2 diabetes which can result from a high-fat diet.

The study, published in the journal Experimental Physiology, also casts doubt on the previously held view that increasing the quantity of mitochondria, the tiny structures in cells that convert glucose and fats to energy, would help fix some symptoms of a high fat diet.

The researchers found that the benefits from physical activity were not affected by the quantity of mitochondria.

Insulin is a hormone used to control blood sugar levels. High-fat diets contribute to the development of insulin resistance, which is when their muscle, fat, and liver cells do not respond properly to insulin and leads to the development of type 2 diabetes.

Study lead author Megan Rosa-Caldwell, a doctoral student at The University of Arkansas in US, found that mice genetically engineered to have higher quantity of mitochondria were not more protected against high-fat diet induced insulin resistance.

The researchers fed all the mice in the study a diet that mimics Western diets high in fat.

The genetically engineered and control mice were further divided into a group that was allowed to exercise, and a sedentary group.

Their results showed that physical activity, regardless of the amount of mitochondria, offered similar health benefits against insulin resistance.

The researchers said that it appears that exercise's ability to help remove damaged cellular materials and enhance the quality of the mitochondria maybe more effective for preventing insulin resistance.

But they said these aspects need to be further tested.

Ms Rosa-Caldwell said that with rates of obesity and type 2 diabetes continuing to increase, understanding the cellular processes that help or hurt insulin resistance can help doctors better tailor effective preventative measures such as exercise.

Michelle Hague Hypnotherapy

Achieving your health goals

DID you start out at the beginning of the year, full of good intentions?

Maybe it was to lower your blood pressure, or to get your stress levels under control, shed a few pounds, stop smoking or deal with that bigger issue that has been holding you back, need more confidence, sort out that dental phobia or quell the fear of flying. How ever large or small your good intentions were, we all know how difficult it can be to master. Maybe it is even more serious issue and you have been living with pain or trauma and deep seated anxiety and have been meaning to resolve it and speak to someone.

Here we are in the middle of summer and many of you will still be thinking about when you will actually start.

This is your health and there is no better time than right now, and if something is stopping you, there is a good chance that it is you.

All the time you wait, the underlying associated symptoms increase, so why not pick up the phone and talk to Michelle, she has been in her practice in Axminster for over 10 years using Clinical and Cognitive Behavioural Hypnotherapy, Mindfulness along side her associated training and has had great success treating people just like you. HALE AND HEARTY COMMONLY prescribed drugs to treat heart problems also reverse potentially harmful genetic changes from heart disease.

Beta blockers work mainly by decreasing the activity of the heart by blocking the action of hormones like adrenaline.

They are used to treat angina, heart disease, an irregular heartbeat, heart attacks and high blood pressure.

Also known as beta-adrenoceptor blocking agents, scientists have known for decades the drugs work by slowing the heart rate and reducing the force of contraction - lessening the burden of work carried out by the heart.

But now Canadian scientists from York University in Toronto found these drugs also reverse a number of potentially detrimental genetic changes associated with heart disease.

Professor John McDermott said: "Morbidity and mortality associated with cardiovascular disease (CVD) is a predominant global health problem occupying a prevalent position as the leading cause of death worldwide.

"Due to its universality, the multi-faceted progression of heart disease is therefore one of profound clinical importance.

"Progressive heart failure, as one aspect of CVD, has a staggering prevalence of approximately thirty eight million diagnosed patients globally, a number which is growing due to the ageing population and the pervasiveness of HF in that age cohort.

"Moreover, a heart failure diagnosis in many cases is an ailment with a poorer prognosis than most cancers.

"Understanding and averting the progression of heart failure is therefore fundamental in the battle against CVD."

The study used an experimental model of heart failure and next generation sequencing to get a snapshot of all of the RNA in the heart cells to identify the global gene expression changes that occur in heart failure.

It then explored what happened to this pattern of gene expression when beta blocker treatment was implemented, and what they found not only surprised them, but could have important ramifications for future treatments of heart disease.

Prof McDermott added: "We discovered that beta blockers largely reverse the pathological pattern of gene expression observed in heart failure

"This could mean that the reversal or suppression of pathological gene expression by beta blockers is somehow protective against heart failure, but it's something we would need to look into further to understand how individual genes function in the heart."

The study also found some genes associated with the immune system were dysregulated in heart failure, supporting recent research that has suggested the immune system and inflammation are involved in heart disease.

Prof McDermott concluded: "These observations support recent developments reflecting the involvement of the immune system and inflammatory responses in the progression of heart disease.

"It will be of interest to further analyse these inflammatory related protein coding genes to determine if they do indeed contribute to heart disease.

"Herein, we report broad categories of biological processes and also individual genes that are differentially regulated under conditions of experimental heart failure that can be reversed by pharmacological treatment with beta-adrenergic antagonists.

"The next steps will be to determine whether these changes are mirrored in human heart disease and to develop a flexible array of therapeutics that can detect and potentially target these processes with the ultimate aim of reducing pathological changes in the myocardium, enhancing cardiac function, and improving patient morbidity and mortality associated with heart disease."

The study was published in Nature Scientific Reports.

EU: 'We're leaving - get used to it'

■ IN MY last response to Mr Richard David, I recall that I used the word 'delusional' and clearly that was a reasonable judgment.

Firstly he suggests that my piece (Letters, June 13th) was some form of political propaganda, a statement made without any evidence of my membership of a political party, political leanings or even if I am apolitical.

Secondly he refers to the people of Seaton voting to leave the EU. Whether Seaton voted to leave the EU or not is immaterial. The vote was not based on electoral boundaries as if we were voting for an MP, nor was it based on the nation states of the UK.

It was a UK based referendum which was blind to all boundaries or countries of the UK. All the votes were collated and the YES vote was greater than the NO vote. The vote to leave prevailed. It is called democracy.

My anger, if anger it was, was directed at all those so called democrats who show their complete lack of democracy when a vote goes against their wishes and start demanding more referenda in the hope of reversing the decision.

Again, true to form, Mr David makes an ill judged assumption by assuming I live in Seaton or Colyton, I don't. This newspaper is read much more widely than that.

I also take issue with his, again, ill thought out and utterly impertinent assumption that I do not have the means to fund a production facility in Devon. I said the production facility was to be established in the UK, I did not say in Devon.

It would serve Mr David well to think before he speaks.

He accuses me of political propaganda, yet bangs on about Tory austerity without a thought, or possibly a care, as to why austerity became essential.

Read your history Mr David and learn about how the Tory governments have always had to manage the disasters of incompetence left behind by Labour governments.

The true abuse by the state is obtaining power by pretending everybody can have everything at no real cost, borrowing well beyond our means, taxing the wealth creating sector of the economy beyond reason and creating massive job losses, trashing the economy until they are kicked out of office.

Then along come people like Mr David who, wrongly and delusionally blames the incoming government for all the problems.

When a new government takes office, the old problems remain. They have to be dealt with.

I am sure Mr David loves his country and he says he is patriotic. The dictionary definition of patriot is 'a person who is devoted to and ready to defend and support his or her country'.

Surely a person who says he is a patriot and is then prepared to allow an undemocratic, unelected and unaccountable body to control almost every aspect of our lives, causes our laws to be subservient to this growing undemocratic behemoth, allow uncontrolled immigration and expect us almost by force to hand over tens of billions of pounds for the pleasure of belonging and knowing, or should know, that the longer we remain, it will only be a short time before we are totally subsumed into this nightmare called the EU, should I believe, examine his patriotism.

If Mr David wishes to commit our country to Europe and ultimately 'ever closer union' he should remember that the EU is political, protectionist and anti-democratic.

As I said before Mr David, we are leaving the EU, get used to it.

Play your part and help the UK embrace the whole world in trade and tourism and enrich the lives and prospects of our people.

We do, of course, wish to continue trade with the EU, but we also need to leave that sclerotic organisation to secure our nations future.

Please remember the EU share of world trade has been progressively falling for years.

I have aired my views and I suspect Mr David will retain his as I retain mine.

I understand that Mr David is involved in promoting tourism to this country and in that I wish him well and all success.

We were never meant to get back what we put in

■ STUART Nisbet seems to have failed to grasp the basic principles upon which the EU was founded (Letters, June 27th), which were, among other things, to discourage future European conflicts.

By each member state contributing proportionally to its means, to raise overall standards of living, to the eventual economic benefit of the community as a whole.

This means that, as one of the wealthier members, we were never meant "to get back what we put in".

It also means that when I go to Spain in 2017 I don't find myself next to a Spaniard at a restaurant, as I did in 1968, eating a single, roasted green pepper for his dinner.

Perhaps Mr Nisbet could explain to me what he means by an "unauditable black hole".

Give your advertising an unfair advantage. Run some press ads.

The effectiveness consultancy Benchmarking have analysed what happens when companies include press advertising in their media mix.

They looked at 500 econometric models, across a five-year period and discovered that adding newspapers dramatically increases the return on investment of other media.

Over half were service companies who saw the effectiveness of their TV advertising double, ROI of their overall campaigns treble and their online digital display enjoy a four-fold increase.

Individual categories also saw impressive results.

Automotive campaigns clocked a 70% increase. In travel, effectiveness trebled. In retail it leapt by 2.8 times. And most remarkable of all, in the financial category, Benchmarking uncovered an increase of 5.7 times.

So, whatever business you are in, you should be in the newspapers.

CHAIR CHOICE

Looking to buy a new chair?

AT CHAIR CHOICE our aim is to offer everyone the benefit of our knowledge and experience with honest, genuine help and advice. All ranges are carefully selected from reliable suppliers (British manufacturers wherever possible) for their quality and value for money. We make no false claims or too good to be true offers. We do not sell online or mail order as we believe you should benefit from the many advantages of dealing with your local retailer.

When selecting your new chair consider the size and proportion of the user as well as the room. If you are concerned by the size of your new furniture we would ask you to supply relevant measurements, for example the size of existing item or the space available. Trying to evaluate by eye can be deceptive as a model you judge to be too big may in fact be smaller than it appears in our showroom. Whilst measurements such as seat height are a useful guide, seat and back angles are more influential in the way a chair feels to sit in and use so it is important to try different models and options before you buy.

At Chair Choice we have over 100 chairs for you to see and try including lounge, wing, fireside, high seat, reclining plus electric rise and recline models. Many models are offered in a range of sizes with 2 or 3 seater settees to match.

Visit our showroom and try all the different models for yourself so you can make your own assessment and ensure you are comfortable with your choice. You'll be spoilt for choice with prices considerably less than nationally advertised chair specialists!

Chair Choice is located at 52 Furnham Road (A358) Chard, just along from B&Q (next to the old Furnham Inn) with customer parking and easy level access to all parts of our spacious showroom.

So come and visit us today, with lots of chairs available from stock you will soon be sitting comfortably!

3 FRESH-AS-A-DAISY LOOKS FOR YOUR HOME

By Gabrielle Fagan, Press Association

MAKE rooms look blooming lovely with floral designs guaranteed to grow on you...

Florals never fade or go out of fashion, thanks to our enduring passion for reflecting nature and the great outdoors in our homes - and right now, they're in full bloom everywhere.

But just as you wouldn't have a wilting bouquet of flowers in your home, any floral look you introduce should be fresh and bang-up-to-date too.

Luckily, today's designers are making sure their interpretations are a world away from the old-hat chintz and fussy 'grandma' looks of yesteryear. They've embraced petal-power with bright, bold, new designs, aided by up-to-the-minute digital techniques.

So pick one of these looks - no water needed, and they're guaranteed never to wither...

THE NEW PRETTY

Think pastel pinks and wallpapers featuring petals and pretty blooms, for a fresh, feminine spin on florals...

Rebecca Snowden, interior style advisor at Furniture Choice (www.furniturechoice.co.uk), says: "When people talk about florals, it tends to be centred around spring and summer fashion and interiors, with powdery pastel pinks a hot favourite both for the catwalk and the home this year."

"Unusually, the trend will carry through late into winter and those pastel hues will move into deeper, darker reds and pinks. Plum and deep magenta against a smoky black background will conjure a dramatic, gothic effect."

DRAMATIC BLOOMS

Striking, pared-back, nature-inspired designs and bold colourways are perfect for a no-fuss or frills approach to this look.

"Giant florals have been the stars of the catwalk shows, and now, from wardrobe to walls, we're reviving floral patterns and embracing large-scale designs in bright, vibrant colours for a statement look," says Paula Taylor, colour and trends specialist at Graham & Brown (www.grahambrown.com/uk).

"Expressive, elaborate blooms are making their way onto our walls, furniture and homeware to create dramatic, coloured backdrops for the home. People are becoming much braver in their choice of design and colours and after decades of plain magnolia walls, Brits are falling back in love with these patterns. It's time to be colour-confident again and express personality through dynamic palettes and opulent patterns."

CLASSIC COUNTRY

Botanical illustrations, that could have come straight from the pages of a traditional nature study book, combine with natural textures and a neutral colour palette for an update on that perennial favourite - classic country.

"If, like me, you love reflecting the subtle tones that you find in the garden, a palette of lavender, sage, rose and heather is a perfect place to start," advises Claire Hornby, creative stylist, Barker & Stonehouse (www.barkerandstonehouse.co.uk).

"These can be incorporated into your scheme through soft furnishings, or smaller upholstered pieces featuring designs reminiscent of natural history drawings, which will inject character into your living space."

"If an abundance of flowers, plants and all things natural appeals to your sense of style, then don't be afraid to use a large variety of plants and blooms in one room, to help achieve a fresh feel. These can be potted plants, vases of flowers, or even indoor trees. Intersperse greenery with country-themed decorative objects."

ARTSidmouth

ARTSidmouth is an art gallery which sells an eclectic mix of affordable art mostly by listed artists. Whether your taste is for traditional art or more abstract and quirky pieces, it is worth giving ARTSidmouth a visit at the shop at 7 Church Street, Sidmouth, opposite Sidmouth Parish Church. Sidmouth is a popular coastal visitor destination, with a mix of largely independent shops and cafes. All the works are individual and original and the collection is ever changing. One particular emphasis is on Marine and Seascapes, which are very popular and reflect the area's special qualities. There are usually a number of works of this type on display in watercolour, oil or mixed media. We also have studio collections that we can show you images of. Whether you are looking for that one special painting or seeking to furnish a property or premises with interesting and well priced art, it is worthwhile having a look at our website or shop. The shop is friendly and informal and we understand that people only buy art that they love. The store is open weekdays, Saturdays and sometimes Sundays but you may also contact ARTSidmouth on 07854 448503, by email: artgallerysidmouth@gmail.com, visit Instagram at "artgallerysidmouth" or view the website at www.artsidmouth.co.uk

COLOURFENCE

Colourfence – The ONLY garden fence you will ever need!

ANDY AND SHELLEY Stewart, launched Colourfence 3 years ago in South Somerset & Dorset. They have been working hard towards promoting Colourfence and this is fast becoming a well-known product across their area. Great news for the area's homeowners who have become frustrated and tired of maintaining their traditional timber fencing!

The feedback from their customers has been overwhelming and this has increased their recommendations from happy customers, who are extremely pleased with their new low maintenance fence, so they can now spend more time enjoying their gardens.

Colourfence is the alternative to timber fencing..... Our fence is guaranteed not to warp, chip or peel for up to 25 years*. Put an end to painting, an end to rotten posts - an end to constant maintenance! Colourfence goes up, stays up whatever the weather, even against wind gusts of 130mph! Virtually maintenance free, with an occasional wash down with water to keep it looking as good as new. Both sides of the panel are the same, so both you and your neighbour have a stunning fence to look at year after year, ensuring good neighbourly relations.

Our fences and gates are available in a variety of heights and colours with or without trellis, our skilled installation team will make short work of transforming your garden. Starting costs are in line with comparable traditional systems but offer the ongoing peace of mind that Colourfence will continue to save you time and money year after year.

4 WAYS TO BE WATERWISE DURING THE WARMER MONTHS

By Hannah Stephenson, Press Association

1. Water at certain times of the day

Water at specific times - early morning or dusk - to reduce evaporation. Don't water in the heat of the day. Use water butts; put pots under hanging baskets so the overspill also waters plants below and leave clippings on the lawn after mowing to retain moisture.

2. Don't water established lawns

If we have a long, hot spell, your lawn may turn a bit brown, but it will recover with the autumn rains. Leave grass to grow a bit longer to preserve water and introduce drought-tolerant clovers, which will prevent the lawn from changing colour completely when a dry spell hits.

3. Recycle your water

Try to recycle water as a matter of course. Use a plastic bowl for washing up and then deposit the water on to your plants, as a small amount of washing up liquid isn't going to hurt them.

4. Choose your plant placement wisely

Some more thirsty specimens in pots may benefit from being placed on a tray lined with capillary matting, which soaks up the water and then delivers the moisture to the roots, gradually when it's needed.

Safe, Secure & very, very strong....

The Emily Askew Band to play Concerts in the West shows

■ The Emily Askew Band

EMILY ASKEW is one of those multi talented musicians whose ability to embrace a wide range of instruments is both breathtaking and inspiring to hear. With Ensemble Askew she demonstrates her creative vision for mixing Medieval and Renaissance melodies with contemporary instruments and modern folk styles with tremendous aplomb.

As an accomplished player of instruments such as vielle (medieval fiddle), shawm, bagpipes, recorders and medieval harp, Emily is a fearless experimenter, fusing both early music and folk. The results are tremendously engaging and inspirational to audiences who can expect to be caught up in uplifting, toe-tapping rhythmic performances.

Emily and her fellow musicians John Dipper (viola d'amore, vile, fiddle) Jamie Roberts (voice, guitar), Louise Morgan (hand percussion and medieval bells) get to the very heart of songs, playing with a level of energy and drive that will captivate audiences.

Emily graduated with a first class honours BMUS at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama and received the Dove Memorial Prize for the highest BMUS mark in her year. As a member of the Askew Sisters, she has twice been a BBC Young Folk Award semi-finalist and in 2005 won the New Roots competition.

Commenting on the concerts, the Founder and Director of Concerts in the West, Catherine Hodgson, said: "In 2014, Emily and her group The Artisans were so popular that we have asked her back again this year with Ensemble Askew. She is such an exciting young musician, playing a wide range of instruments with ease and is definitely one of the rising stars of traditional music. The combined talents of Emily and her band will make for tremendously entertaining performances."

Life and legend of the Vikings

Exhibition to be screened at the Beehive

DISCOVER the Viking world in this major exhibition – the first at the British Museum for over 30 years – to be screened at The Beehive on Friday, July 28th at 7pm.

Organised by the British Museum, the National Museum of Denmark, and the Museum für Vor- und Frühgeschichte, Staatliche Museen zu Berlin.

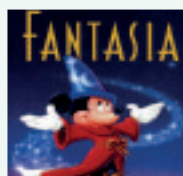

This special British Museum cinema event offers an exclusive private view of the BP exhibition Vikings: life and legend – the first exhibition about the Vikings at the museum for 30 years. Introduced by former British Museum Director Neil MacGregor and presented by the celebrated broadcasting historians Michael Wood and Bettany Hughes, the exhibition is brought to life by curator Gareth Williams, alongside experts on Viking ships and swords, burial and beliefs, language and legacy. With demonstrations, stunning close-up photography of the Viking objects in the exhibition and a torch-lit burial staged in the grounds of the museum, Vikings from the British Museum is a reminder of how the Vikings have shaped modern lives across four continents including North America. An exclusive, expertly guided tour of the British Museum's new blockbuster Vikings exhibition.

There are plenty of surprises in store as we learn how they created a complex international trading network covering four continents. We also discover our direct connections to the Vikings through language, poetry, names, place names and even our DNA.

The exhibition and cinema feature focus on the core period of the Viking Age, from the late 8th century to the early 11th century. The extraordinary Viking expansion from the Scandinavian homelands during this era created a cultural network with contacts from the Caspian Sea to the North Atlantic, and from the Arctic Circle to the Mediterranean. Warfare and warrior identity are at the centre of what it meant to be a Viking and contact with other lands was often violent. Objects include recently excavated skeletons from a mass grave of executed Vikings in Dorset, armour and weapons. But there is also fine jewellery, sculpture and metalwork which was traded as well as raided across the globe.

The Vikings exhibition will be screened at the Beehive on Friday, July 28th. Tickets are £10 and £8, available by calling 01404 384050 or visit www.beehivehoniton.co.uk

Ilminster's cinema at Warehouse Theatre celebrates 30th season

THIRTY year's ago, at the Warehouse Theatre in Brewery Lane, Ilminster, the paint was hardly dry when the new film club, The Cinema at the Warehouse, was formed. Two well-worn 35mm projectors were installed and a screen was hung and a programme of a dozen films drawn up. Membership took time to grow, but grow it did and nowadays there are over 200 members each season.

The club is celebrating its 30th season on Sunday, December 17th with a screening of Babette's Feast, a wonderful Danish film we showed 30 years ago on reel-to-reel, of course. All films are now shown on DVD, which the club buys and adds to its free-to-members library each year. Babette's Feast is our Christmas special and an excuse for a celebratory drink.

The Warehouse provides a fine venue for movies, with its comfortable raked seating, a large screen and a central location in Ilminster. The club is run by a committee and volunteers and offers a rich and varied programme of 12 or so recently released, acclaimed films, both foreign and English language - movies that tend not to get shown locally by the major cinema chains. This year's collection includes: Paterson; The Olive Tree; Manchester by the Sea; A Bigger Splash; Babette's Feast; Burn, Burn, Burn; Divines; Arrival; Tanna; I, Daniel Blake; Mustang.

Membership for the year is just £24 (£2 per film) with free coffee and biscuits and free use of the DVD library. We are currently enrolling members for the 2017-2018 season. For more information and to join, go to www.cinemaatthewarehouse.co.uk or email crisrainbow44@gmail.com.

Minions, Wild West Cowboys and Pirates all at one park!

THE SIX weeks of Summer School holidays are nearly upon us - what have you got planned?

World of Country Life Exmouth in Exmouth may have the answer with their fun packed itinerary of summer activities planned to keep the kids and grown-ups amused.

Back by popular demand - those crazy funny blobs of 'yellowness' it is of course the lovable Minions! They will be causing their usual brand of mischiefness all over the park every Monday throughout the school holidays - BANANA!!

Wednesdays are all about the Wild West and 'rootin' tootin' fun and games! Look out for Sherriff 'Angus and his deputies - they will be on hand to round up the baddies and restore order on the park - Yeeha!!

Ahoy me hearties! Pirate Fridays are back bigger than ever for summer 2017 with shows that will entertain and games to keep you on your toes every Friday throughout the school holidays. 'Shiver me timbers!'

Aside from the themed days there are loads of extra activities planned for summer, alongside the usual daily itinerary. Ride the Deer Train Safari* walk a goat, bottle feed the lambs & calves, wonder at the amazing Hawkrider birds of prey flying displays, watch the hilarious 'Total Wipe-out' Ferret racing or the equally hilarious 'Lamb National' sheep racing event all of which are daily activities.

There are two themed soft play areas, the big blue slide, the playground and new for 2017 the giant air bouncer - great fun for kids and adults!

If you do have any time left don't forget to take a stroll down memory lane in the Victorian street, visit the shops and the pub and then visit the museum and find out how farmers farmed the land in years gone by with the working machinery on view.

A visit to World of Country Life would not be complete without popping in to the Hall of Transport one of the largest collections of classic vehicles and steam engines in the south west, home to the Charabanc used in filming Downton Abbey and Mr Selfridge's Daimler to name but a few!

So, what days are you planning to visit World of Country Life? Perhaps an Annual Pass membership may be worth considering - only £35.90 for children & over 60's and only £40.50 for adults and with under 3 years old free you could enjoy whole year of fun filled days out! Check out www.worldofcountrylife.co.uk for full details.

■ Pete Allen

Pete Allen's traditional jazz values

THE feel good factor comes to Ilminster Arts Centre on Friday, August 11th with a performance by the hugely popular Pete Allen Traditional Jazz Band.

Pete Allen first appeared at the Arts Centre three years ago, and he returns in the company of his band, which is one of the best-known 'trad' bands in the country.

One of Europe's most talented and exciting exponents of the clarinet, Pete Allen first formed his band in October 1978, and since then it has made numerous appearances on television and radio as well as performing at prestigious jazz festivals and clubs throughout the UK and abroad. Along the way the band has acquired legions of enthusiastic fans and among the countless wedding receptions and birthday parties at which the band has performed over the years can be included a number of functions for Sir Ian Botham.

The band are renowned for their exciting and entertaining repertoire of happy traditional jazz. It's a sound that everyone can enjoy and understand being a combination of well-played music with professional presentation.

The concert at Ilminster Arts Centre is a must not only for traditional jazz fans but also for anyone who enjoys feel good, uplifting music being performed live in an intimate, low key venue. Tickets are £20, and a pre-show supper is available for £14 at 7pm, but must be pre-booked.

SYMONDS & SAMPSON BEAMINSTER HELD THEIR SECOND ANNUAL CHARITY GARDEN PARTY – AND WHAT A PARTY!

THE sun shone in Maggie and Peter Brook's beautiful garden in the heart of Beaminster as over 100 guests came to enjoy an ice cold Pimms and canapes all in aid of two local charities; Mosaic who work with bereaved children and the Go Girls who support women with gynae cancers and were out in full force spreading their infectious enthusiasm and giggles.

'These charities mean a lot to the firm and our office in particular as our colleague Erica lost her battle with ovarian cancer in 2016' commented Jeremy Smith. 'The generosity of our guests, the local community and the staff has been astonishing.'

'Thank to many local businesses we were able to offer some superb raffle prizes and raised over £600 on the day and further donations from guests who were unable to come exceeded £800. We have so many people to thank for the day's success not least Maggie and Peter Brook. The grand total for the afternoon is looking to total around £1,500. A truly staggering figure!'

The Go Girls were also able to raise an extra £541 with their own raffle for an amazing Duchy hamper.

Symonds & Sampson are continuing to raise funds for these two exceptional charities and will be organising further events throughout the year.

Further thanks must be made to, Co op, John Cornick Motors Yeovil, Palmers Brewery, Duchess of Cornwall Inn Poundbury, Anchor Inn Seatown, Belle Modelle, Farmer Palmers, Beth Rendall dog grooming, Heritage coast canoe club, Emily Roy Beautyician, Trading Post Café, Beaminster Flowers, Cilla and Camilla, Sutton Bingham reservoir, Brassica, Bridge House for their generous raffle donations!

Precision, beauty and performance: The new Lotus Evora GT430

FOLLOWING the successful introduction of the Lotus Evora 400 and Evora Sport 410 to global markets, Lotus has unveiled its most powerful road-going model ever – the Evora GT430.

A beautiful and pure combination of elegance and power, Lotus has lavished attention on hand-crafted carbon-fibre components to endow this fully homologated Evora with a level of precision engineering and design unseen before.

This focused evolution of the critically acclaimed Evora has resulted in a landmark model for the famous British manufacturer. Powered by a new development of the 3.5-litre V6 supercharged and charge cooled engine producing 430 hp, and benefitting from a significant hike in downforce, the rare breed Evora GT430 is a class apart from its competitors.

Underpinned by the company's acknowledged eminence in lightweight engineering, and at a new benchmark weight of 1,258 kg (dry), the Lotus Evora GT430 is the manufacturer's most powerful and accomplished road car to date. With such performance, and all the marque's chassis expertise, the new Evora GT430 delivers tremendous real-world speed and handling unheard of in its class.

Given the car's breath-taking design and phenomenal performance, the Evora GT430 is an instant classic. Just 60 editions of this supreme Evora will be hand built in Norfolk, England, for sale in select markets around the world and, following the popularity of Lotus' recent limited run editions, it's already in line to be a true collector's car.

Marking the return of a famous Lotus badge, and acknowledging the Lotus Esprit

V8 GT and the Esprit GT3 from the 1990s, this two-seater encapsulates the company's approach to fast point-to-point sports cars. 0-60mph is dispatched in just 3.7 seconds and the car's top speed is 190 mph (305 km/h).

With new and specifically designed body panels, featuring exposed carbon weave sections, front and rear, the Lotus GT430 generates up to 250 kg of downforce through advanced aerodynamics. Larger front apertures, a new carbon fibre splitter, air blades and louvers positioned on top of each front wheel arch clearly illustrate the supercar credentials of the Evora GT430 when viewed head on. At the rear, aero ducts behind each wheel reduce pressure in the wheel arch and offer visibility of the wider Michelin Pilot Sport Cup 2 tyres, and a large rear diffuser provides a sharp visual finish. Both are crowned by the large, profiled carbon wing.

Jean-Marc Gales, CEO, Group Lotus plc said, "The Evora GT430 is a landmark car for Lotus. Lightweight engineering and class-leading handling, paired with Lotus' aerodynamic expertise, define the Evora GT430 as a legendary Lotus. It's a truly beautiful car, meticulously finished in hand-crafted carbon, and employing the latest aerodynamics and lightweight materials. This highly developed vehicle perfectly reflects Lotus' attention to engineering and design. We expect the lucky owners to be blown away by its pure presence and staggering performance."

Alfa Romeo announces UK pricing and specification for all-new Stelvio

FOLLOWING its UK debut at Goodwood Festival of Speed last month, Alfa Romeo has revealed the UK pricing and specification for its first ever SUV, the all-new Alfa Romeo Stelvio, with prices starting from £33,990 OTR. The Alfa Romeo Stelvio launches with an exclusive version for 2017 – the Milano Edizione to offer customers even greater functionality and style, while providing exceptional value for money.

Four trim levels will be available from September including Alfa Romeo Stelvio, Super, Speciale and the limited production Milano Edizione. At launch, drivers will be able to choose between two engine versions – 2.2-litre 210hp diesel Q4 AWD and 2.0-litre 280hp petrol Q4 AWD – combined with an ZF eight-speed automatic transmission as standard.

The 2.0-litre 280hp petrol Q4 AWD engine offers best in class acceleration, going from zero to 62mph in just 5.7 seconds and onto a top speed of 143mph, while returning 40.4mpg* on the combined cycle and emitting just 161g/km* CO2. The 2.2-litre 210hp diesel Q4 AWD meanwhile, gives out 127g/km* CO2 and returns 58.9mpg* on the combined cycle, while still registering a top speed of 134mph and accelerating from zero to 62mph in 6.6 seconds. From September the Alfa Romeo Stelvio will also be available to order with a 2.2-litre diesel engine, producing 180hp and available in both Q4 all-wheel-drive or rear-wheel-drive, and a 2.0-litre petrol engine, with 200hp and Q4 all-wheel-drive.

Featuring perfect 50/50 weight distribution, Alfa Romeo Q4 all-wheel drive architecture, best in class power-to-weight ratios and innovative engine and driver technologies, the Alfa Romeo Stelvio embodies everything a true Alfa Romeo should. Not only that, but the Alfa Romeo Stelvio can boast at being the lightest mid-size SUV in the sector thanks to its lightweight body structure and carbon fibre driveshaft, coming in at just 1,604kg for the 2.2-litre diesel 180hp RWD and up to 1,660kg for the 2.0-litre petrol 280hp Q4 AWD, only adding an extra 56kg for the all-wheel-drive system (AWD).

Finding the perfect balance between driving experience and safety, the Alfa Romeo Stelvio was recently awarded a coveted five-star Euro NCAP rating with a score of 97 per cent for the protection of adult occupants; the highest score in its category. Credited for its host of innovative safety systems, which come as standard across the full range, the Alfa Romeo Stelvio boasts Alfa Romeo's segment-first Integrated Brake System, Autonomous Emergency Brake with pedestrian detection, Blind Spot Monitoring, Forward Collision Warning and Lane Departure Warning.

The all-new Alfa Romeo Stelvio stands out from the crowd thanks to its distinctive Italian design, expressed through its proportions and technical architecture leaving the impression of sophisticated simplicity and quality surfaces, both inside and out. From launch customers will have a choice of three trim levels and a limited production Milano Edizione.

Gone in 44 seconds: New Jaguar XJR575 hosts 186mph interview

JAGUAR has launched the new XJR575 with a high-speed interview starring designer Wayne Burgess being questioned by TV presenter and race driver Amanda Stretton as the performance saloon accelerates from 0-186mph.

Lasting just 44 seconds – the time it takes Jaguar's fastest-ever XJ saloon to reach its top speed – Burgess gave a quick-fire insight into the development of the potent new model.

The high velocity interview was almost over before it began, but the unrelenting acceleration of the new XJ flagship did not stop Burgess, Production Studio Director and SVO Projects Director at Jaguar, from providing a unique take on the performance saloon. Watch the video here: <https://youtu.be/U-FPIi-bNc4>

The XJR575 is the new performance flagship for the XJ range with power up from 550PS to 575PS, delivering 0-62mph (100 km/h) in just 4.4 seconds. Jaguar Land Rover's 5.0-litre V8 supercharged engine also provides 700Nm of torque, providing the new addition to the range with effortless acceleration and refinement.

Customers will be able to choose between two bespoke exterior colour finishes created by Special Vehicle Operations – Velocity Blue and Satin Corris Grey – while additional tailor-made exterior details include a rear spoiler, side sills, front bumper and lower air intakes featuring gloss black surrounds.

Updated exterior badging and twin bonnet louvres mark the vehicle out from the rest of the range, as do the red brake callipers that accompany the 20-inch Farallon gloss-black wheels. Bespoke embossed tread plates alongside intaglio and diamond-quilted seating add a final flourish to the XJR575's interior.

The XJR575 is manufactured at Jaguar Land Rover's Castle Bromwich plant alongside the XE, XF, F-TYPE and XJ model lines.

The new Jaguar XJR575 model is available to order now from Jaguar UK retailers, priced from £93,710 OTR.

Driving elite head for Wiscombe Park

THE last weekend in July brings the elite of British speed hill climbing to Wiscombe Park as the country's best drivers and cars make their sole annual visit to the South West.

The Avon Tyres/TTC Group British Hill Climb Championships will be fought out across two days at the demanding East Devon Wiscombe Park track (EX24 6JE).

The centre of the weekend's action will be on Sunday with two exciting run-offs for the fastest twelve championship competitors.

However, there will be separate events for local drivers on Sunday and on the previous day along with the practice runs for those contesting the national series.

Nine of the top ten finishers in the championship, including former champion and Wiscombe joint record holder Trevor Willis, will be travelling from Scotland, Wales and the Channel Islands to battle for supremacy in a record entry of over 220 drivers.

Whilst the competition has attracted drivers from throughout the country, a number of local drivers will have less far to travel in order to make their challenge.

Three such drivers will be seeking to qualify for the two critical Top Twelve Run-Offs (for the fastest 12 championship contenders) which provide the main spectacle of the weekend's meeting. Honiton's Ed Hollier (Empire Evo) and Dave Gardner (Pilbeam MP62) and Kevin Broad from Exeter also aboard in Pilbeam.

Hollier, a regular in the national series during the last two seasons, will be familiar with the process as he seeks to protect his ninth-place finish of last season. Messers Gardner and Broad will be focusing on maximising their opportunity on their local hill.

Although the main focus of attention will be on these ultimate machines there will be a supporting cast of saloon and sports cars including classes for saloons and sports cars in addition to the vintage Austin Sevens, Porsches and Minis.

Minis remain a crowd pleaser and two local drivers will be amongst a special class of Mini variants. Ex-circuit racer John Kirby from Weymouth will be at the wheel of his turbo-charged 998cc Clubman whilst a 1330cc machine will be in the hands of Stephen Wareham from Bere Regis.

Sout Devon based drivers will be seeking success including golf professional Jon Langmead from Exminster in his Lotus Elise, Joe Keep and Sammi Layzell (Ford Fiesta) from Honiton and Ottery St Mary plus Honiton's Duncan Beer who will be giving his striking matt black Ford Fiesta an outing.

Colyton resident George Koopman will not have far to travel in his Porsche Cayman which replaces his mount of many years, a Honda Integra.

Exeter garage proprietors John Reed and Roger Coote will compete in their Cosworth powered Ford Anglia 105E and Ginetta G4 respectively whilst also from the city will be

Honours even in local derby match

HONITON with John Pawley

THE past week started with warm sunny conditions for the Seniors' match against TAUNTON & PICKERIDGE - the return leg of the June match where Honiton lost the away leg by a hefty margin.

This time Mike Sennitt's team were able to avenge this somewhat with a 4½-1½ win.

On Thurs AXE CLIFF were the team hoping to avenge a defeat they had suffered earlier this year.

In perfect conditions, with the course looking and playing extremely well after some recent rain, the Honiton Seniors were able to keep them at bay with a 3-3 draw.

Last Tuesday the members played in the mixed RYE FOURSOMES. The challenging structure of the competition proved no problem to John Frith & Cherry Liell as they amassed a winning total of 41pts. Next were Hilda Hoepelman & Stan Squire 40 with Linda Curtis & Larry Goodliffe third with 38.

The Ladies were thwarted on Wednesday in their attempts to play the Lady Captain's Prize Stableford. Whilst many had already got well into their round some were still to go when fog descended and play was abandoned.

A similar situation developed on Friday for the Seniors whose 3BBB team competition had to be postponed. With wind and rain around, and even worse forecast, the decision was taken to allow those who wished to play as a friendly. Around 20 members did compete, with some completing the full course.

AXE CLIFF with Peter Motsom

THE Men's section played the Terrace Cup on July 9th, format stableford, played in teams of three with two scores to count.

Alex Todd, Johnny Potter & Bradley Price finished in first place with 80pts, Paul Clode, Simon Matthews & Steve Baked were second with 79pts. Alex Gabb, Nigel Pritchard and Stuart Mackie all carded 2s.

On July 16th the Men competed for the President's Prize, format Stableford. The winner was Paul Clode with 39pts, in second was Gerry Binmore with 38 and Stuart Mackie was third with 37.

The Ladies section attempted to play for the Par Cup but the mist got too thick and the competition had to be abandoned.

On Friday the Ladies scheduled League match at Tiverton was cancelled due to the high winds and torrential rain.

However, on Monday last week, 12 ladies did go to Cricket St Thomas for their SW competition comprising teams of three with two scores to count and that score being added to a second team of three.

There were mixed fortunes in that the two teams with the best scores happened to be teamed with the two teams with the lower scores.

There were 20 teams competing and Axe Cliff's Di Rogers won nearest the pin for the bronze players, on the ninth.

The Seniors' section played their Medford Trophy competition last Friday which was a mixed Medal and Stableford format.

The trophy was won for the third consecutive year by Bob Graham (HC 23) with a total/nett 22 points. In second on countback, also with 22 points was Rob Grove (HC 18) and in third place with 23 points, was Alan Vincent (HC 20) with 23 points.

Tony Strong was the only player to score a two.

CRICKET ST THOMAS

with Bert Robinson

LAST Tuesday 29 seniors entered the July qualifying stableford event in near perfect conditions.

Result: Division One; 1st Ian Housham 43 points; 2nd George Wallace (42), 3rd Terry Rutherford (40).

Division Two: 1st Michael Everton 47 points, 2nd Andy Beale (36), 3rd Peter Harris (35).

The Saints' Seniors match team travelled to Sidmouth on Thursday with Barrie Heath acting as captain in the absence of Roger Stone.

The portends were not encouraging after the first two pairings lost their games. However, two wins from the following three meant that the result rested with the final game. This went to the 18th green, but the Saints pair could only half the game, and the Sidmouth team emerged triumphant 3 1/2 to 2 1/2.

Results: Barrie Heath & Paul England lost 4&3, Ian Griffiths & Dave Mugridge lost 4&2, Chris Gingell & Lindsey Gage won by 1 hole, John Wandless & Nobby Hodder lost 4&3, George Wallace & Barrie Singleton won by 2 holes, John McOmish & Roger Davis halved.
